Network events: coming up in 2007

The Cultural Development Network presents an interactive workshop

'Cultural Planning and Cultural Indicators: how do we measure what we have planned?'

10 am – 1.30 pm, Friday February 16, 2007,
VicHealth Seminar Room, 15 Pelham St, Carlton

This session will refer to the Victorian Community Indicators Project, a VicHealth funded initiative designed to support local governments develop and use community indicators as tools for measuring health, wellbeing and sustainability and for improving citizen engagement, community planning and policy making. Particular reference will be made to the developing area of cultural indicators; measures of cultural activity relevant to government, especially, local contexts.

This theoretical and practical workshop is designed for those who plan for and measure cultural activity. It is especially relevant to local and state government arts and culture workers, as well as social, community and urban planners. It will also be of interest to workers from arts and other non-government organisations who plan and measure cultural activity in specific contexts, as well as researchers interested in cultural policy and mapping.

Presenter: Professor Mike Salvaris, Institute of Community Engagement and Policy Alternatives, Victoria University

Cost including morning tea and lunch: CDN members $44/ others $55

Registration: Places are very limited. Please register by Friday February 9.

Second call for 'Expressions of Interest' for presenters

'Expanding Cultures' conference: arts culture in local government 26-27 July 2007,

Chapel off Chapel, Prahran, Melbourne

'Expanding Cultures' will be a forum for government (especially local) decision and policymakers and staff to come together to consider the contribution of arts and culture to the strength of local communities. This conference will explore themes identified as significant for local councils and will expand on themes explored in the Cultural Development Network's 2004 conference, 'The Fourth Pillar of Sustainability'.

Conference partners:

The conference is being organised by the Cultural Development Network, presented by the City of Stonnington and supported by the Cities of Yarra, Melbourne, Moreland, Maribyrnong, Moonee Valley, Boroondara and Port Phillip.

Conference themes:

- the significance of diverse communities and the changing shape of community cultures and their impact on local government in Victoria.
- arts as a vehicle for building and strengthening communities and facilitating social inclusion
- local government's engagement with indigenous art and culture
- improving evaluation of arts activities and community development programs
- increasing awareness of arts activities and their impact on health, education and economic development.
- innovative partnerships

Expressions of Interest from local, interstate and overseas presenters addressing conference themes are invited.

Funding successes

Katrina Rank wins Caroline Plummer Community Dance Fellowship 2007

Congratulations to Katrina Rank, independent community dance artist, and former Nillumbik Council Cultural Development officer, who has been awarded the Caroline Plummer Fellowship in Community Dance at the University of Otago, New Zealand for 2007. Katrina's Fellowship project, "My Body is an Etching", involves developing a solo dance work for untrained older performers from the community. The dances will express their individual life histories through their movements. Katrina was inspired to apply for the Fellowship after meeting 2006 Fellow, Petra Koppers at a CDN workshop in February 2006.

Research request

Research study: 'Can the arts keep kids in school?'

Dr Anna Hickey-Moody, Postdoctoral Research Fellow at Monash University's Faculty of Education wants to find out whether the arts can help disenfranchised young people get an education. Her two-year research project called 'Creative Arts Engaging Youth at Risk of Leaving School Early' has an ethnographic element, focussing on refugee students at risk of leaving school early as well lower socio-economic students at risk of leaving school early. Dr Moody is looking for artists and teachers in arts programs in schools with disadvantaged young people to contribute to her research.
